

Half of the 19-year-olds still in education and training, but inequalities a concern

Percentage of 19-year-olds in schooling and training

Girls and young people from disadvantaged groups were most likely to have left school, many without gaining a secondary-level certificate.

Young adulthood is a transitional time where many combine work and study

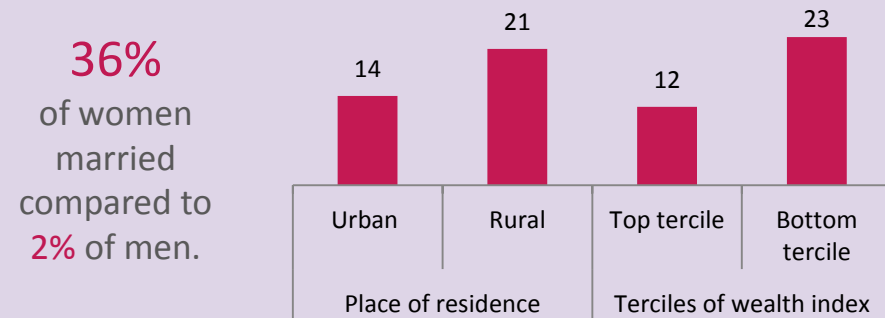

Percentage of 19-year-olds

Two-fifths of young men studying are also working. While similar number of young men and women study full-time, fewer young women combine study and work.

Early marriage most common for girls, in rural areas and in disadvantaged households

Percentage of married 19-year-olds

36% of women married compared to 2% of men.

The average age of marriage of these married young women was 16.6 years.

